

Policy Agreement For Student Missions

You must read and print this information prior to completing an application!

The following guidelines have been formed to help you remain focused throughout the summer/semester of service and have proven to be very helpful to former student missionaries.

Dating-Dating and the forming of exclusive relationships are not allowed while serving on the field.

Trips Home-Trips home are not allowed except for emergencies in the immediate family. You must inform the GA Collegiate Missions office if emergencies arise requiring a trip home.

Parent Visits- Visits from parents/family members should be approved in advance by the local supervisor. It is understandable that such visits will not distract or detract from the ministry at hand.

Friend Visits-Visits from friends and boyfriends/girlfriends are not permitted during the term of service.

Financial Records-Students will keep precise financial records of BCM Student Missions money spent and will make every effort to exhibit wise stewardship in handling missions' money (This only applies to those who receive expense funds from Collegiate Missions. Records are to be turned in at the end of service).

Alcohol/Tobacco Use-Student agrees to abstain from any use or promotion of alcoholic beverages, drugs, and tobacco products during the term of service.

Promptness- Because Collegiate Missions makes all arrangements for contacts, travel, expenses, preparation, etc.- it is imperative that you respond promptly to our emails and calls. Everything we do is to assist you in your missions' experience. We need your cooperation in order to serve you well.

* IF your address or email address changes you need to let us know!
